

Tournament Rules

KBC and Coast 2 Coast Preps seek to operate events at the highest level. To do so, fairness and enforcement of the rules is necessary. The rules listed below are meant to enhance the experience of everyone, and we say “thank you” in advance for following these guidelines.

- Teams are required to turn in a roster before their first game. The roster can be found under the “Tournaments” section of www.KBCHoops.com
- Teams are required to have age verification and grade verification for each player on their team.

- “Playing Down” Rules:

There is no playing down.
- Player Eligibility Protest Procedure:

The head coach must file an official protest in writing and submit a $125 cash deposit per player. The protesting team must provide proper documentation verifying the eligibility for all of their players before a protest can be made on another team. Documentation should include a birth certificate for age verification and an official document from the school the player is currently enrolled in showing proper grade. The protest must be filed before the next game for both teams. If the protest is upheld, the proper disciplinary actions will be taken and the cash deposit shall be returned to the head coach that submitted the protest. If proper documentation cannot be provided to prove the player's eligibility, the player will be held out of competition until proper proof can be presented. All games that the player in question competed in will be counted as forfeits. The ruling of the protest is the sole discretion of the Coast 2 Coast or KBC staff member in charge at that time.

IF A TEAM IS CAUGHT PLAYING WITH INELIGIBLE PLAYERS, TEAM AND HEAD COACH WILL BE BANNED FROM ALL COAST 2 COAST TOURNAMENTS FOR AN ENTIRE CALENDAR YEAR.

 - Cursing at or towards officials, coaches, players, other fans, and KBC staff members
 - Threatening officials, coaches, players, other spectators, and KBC staff members
 - Fighting and physical altercations
 - Excessive harassment of officials, coaches, players, other spectators, and KBC staff members
- If an official ejects a coach or spectator, that spectator MUST leave the building for the remainder of that game. Depending on the severity of the actions, the KBC staff may determine that the ejection will be longer than one game. No refunds will be given to the ejected spectator.
- Players ejected for fighting will serve a minimum one (1) game suspension. That suspension will be for the next scheduled game. Depending on the severity of the actions, the KBC staff may determine that the suspension will be longer than one game.
- If a coach leaves the bench area to go to get a member of the KBC staff to complain about officiating, that coach will be assessed a technical foul. Just as in high school, college, and pro games, coaches are not able to change the current referees or leave the bench area to call the assignor to complain.
- KBC Staff reserves the right to remove spectators or participants that are deemed to be a disruption or a potential problem based off of past actions
